

Rule 1.5

ATTORNEYS

(a) Admission to the Bar of this Court. Admission to and continuing membership in the bar of this Court is limited to attorneys who are active members in good standing of the State Bar of Arizona.

Attorneys may be admitted to practice in this District upon application and motion made in their behalf by a member of the bar of this Court.

Every applicant shall first file with the Clerk a statement on a form provided by the Clerk setting out the applicant's place of birth, ~~residence, office address~~ principal office address and city and state of principal residence, the courts in which the applicant has been admitted to practice, the respective dates of admissions to those courts, whether the applicant is active and in good standing in each, and whether the applicant has been or is being subjected to any disciplinary proceedings.

Motions for admission will be entertained upon the convening of the Court at the call of the law and motion calendar. The applicant must be personally present at the time and, if the motion is granted, shall be admitted upon being administered the following oath by the Clerk or a District Judge:

"I solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Government of the United States; that I will maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers; and that I will demean myself as an attorney, counselor, and solicitor of this Court uprightly."

Thereafter, before a certificate of admission issues, the applicant shall pay an admission fee of eighty dollars ($80) to the Clerk, U.S. District Court.

(b) Practice in this Court. Except as herein otherwise provided, only members of the bar of this Court shall practice in this District.

(3) Pro Hac Vice. An attorney who is admitted to practice in another U.S. District Court, and who has been retained to appear in this Court may, upon written application and in the discretion of the Court, be permitted to appear and participate in a particular case. Unless authorized by the Constitution of the United States or an Act of Congress, an attorney is not eligible to practice pursuant to this subparagraph (b)(3) if any one or more of the following apply: (i) the attorney resides in Arizona, (ii) the attorney is regularly employed in Arizona, or (iii) the attorney is regularly engaged in the practice of law in Arizona. The pro hac vice application shall be presented to the Clerk and shall state under penalty of perjury (i) the attorney's ~~residence and office address~~ principal office address and city and state of principal residence as well as current telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mailing address, if any, (ii) by what courts the attorney has been admitted to practice and the dates of admissions, (iii) that the attorney is in good standing and eligible to practice in those courts, (iv) that the attorney is not currently suspended, disbarred or subject to disciplinary proceedings in any court, and (v) if the attorney has concurrently or within the year preceding the current application made any other pro hac vice applications to this Court, the title and number of each action in which such application was made, the date of each application, and whether each application was granted. The pro hac vice application shall also be accompanied by payment of a pro hac vice fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to the Clerk, U.S. District Court. If the pro hac vice application is denied, the Court may refund any or all of the fee paid by the attorney. If the application is granted, the attorney is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court to the same extent as a member of the bar of this Court.
